Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1-9 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Independent claims 1, 4 and 7, more particularly define the structure and method of recording information to an optical recording medium wherein the medium comprises of a recording layer formed of a phase change material and capable of recording data at a specific linear recording velocity and also there is a specific relationship between the reflectivity of the crystal state of the phase change material and the target linear recording velocity. These particulars, combined with remaining claimed elements are not suggested in the prior art.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
